

Women in Aviation Land of Enchantment Chapter Scholarship Application

Application Instructions:

The Women in Aviation Land of Enchantment Chapter is offering multiple monetary scholarship awards to be used to further educational advancement in the fields of aviation and aerospace. The scholarships will provide financial assistance to be divided to recipients based on need and will be paid directly to the institution of the award winner's choice to apply to their account.

What it covers:

The purpose of the scholarship is to assist the recipient with payment for the direct cost of ground school, flight training, A/P maintenance certification, advanced aviation maintenance certifications, dispatcher's certification or higher education in the fields of aviation or aerospace, or other training directly related to the fields of aviation and aerospace. The funds are not to be used for insurance fees, training materials or flight related equipment (e.g. headsets). The scholarship winner's training or educational institution must approve of the scholarship as the scholarship funds will be disbursed directly to the institution.

Women in Aviation International National Conference award applies to registration fees only. All travel and accommodation expenses are the responsibility of the recipient.

Scholarship funds are available for 18 months from the date of award.

Who is eligible:

Active Women in Aviation International members (both male and female) interested in and/or furthering careers in aviation or aerospace and who are residents of New Mexico or will complete their training in New Mexico are invited to apply for the Land of Enchantment Chapter Scholarships.

To apply for the WAI Land of Enchantment Scholarships, the applicant must:
